

Comhlámh's 'Be The Change' Skills in campaigning & changemaking

*Do you care that the world is unjust?
Do you believe that people power can make a difference?
Do you want to do something about it?*

What does this course cover?

- Find out what's happening in Ireland and identify ways you can continue to support global development efforts;
- Use your experience of volunteering overseas or interest in global issues to fight injustice from Ireland;
- Learn how to plan a campaign and effectively use social and traditional media to communicate your message;
- Meet other interested people, discuss the issues and identify ways to raise awareness.

Who is this course for?

It is for people who:

- Have volunteered or worked overseas;
- Are interested in and would like to support activism in Ireland;
- Believe that people power can make a difference;
- Would like to develop their skills and share them with others.

What is the course content?

3 workshops over 3 Saturdays: Awareness Raising, Campaigning and Media.

When is the training?

Saturday October 1st, 8th and 15th. Time: 10am – 4.30pm.

Where?

Dublin City Centre.

Cost?

€75, concession €30 (€10 deposit). €2 for asylum seekers. Lunch and resources will be provided. 50% discount for Comhlámh members. Cost for one of the three days: €30, €15 concession.

How can I apply?

Email: roisin@comhlamh.org, Call: 01 4783490, Visit www.comhlamh.org/be-the-change

"This course has suggested to me that, although inexperienced, I definitively have relevant, useful skills."

"It helped me develop skills that will be of great use in the future."

